

edTPA & PLT Scores 2020-2021

The West Virginia Department of Education (WVDE) requires that students within initial education programs achieve acceptable performance on a teacher performance assessment (TPA). West Virginia University chose edTPA to meet this requirement in all teacher education program but Music. During the academic year 2020-2021 the WVDE allowed teacher candidates to substitute taking the edTPA with the Principles of Learning and Teaching (PLT) Praxis exam that corresponded with the certification level they were seeking. All of this has resulted in WVU only having scores for the edTPA for the Fall of 2020 in the areas of early childhood, world languages, and art. As you can see from the data below the number of teacher candidate taking the PLT increased by over 100% for both 5622 and 5624.
